

Step Up Unit 1: AQA GCSE English Language Section A - Lesson One

Facing the Questions Paper 1

Each question on each of the papers is always set out in the same way. That means that, while you can't prepare for the exact text you'll receive, you can be prepared for the type of questions you will be asked. You can carefully plan your approach to each one. Use the grid below to create revision notes on key features and techniques needed for each question. Add to it as you learn more.

Question No.	What I'll be asked to do	Key things to remember	How many marks?	How much time?
1		You should look for both explicit (easy to spot) and implicit (looking deeper under the surface) ideas. Make sure to only use the lines of the text that are specified in the question.	4 marks
2
3	Look at the structure of the text – how the author has organised the writing.
